SIR,

I have the honour to forward herewith a letter dated 21st May 1912 from Mrz L. Bishtopunth Badami, Assistant Comptroller, which speaks for itself.

I think it is highly desirable to give training in Public Works Accounts to all our accounts officers who are willing to undergo such training. It will be possible to arrange for the request of Mr. Bishtopunth Badami being complied with after the return of the two officers who are now on deputation to Simla and Calcutta. It will not involve much additional cost to Government as the greater part of the training will be given in the Public Works Accounts Office here and only a short deputation to Madras will be necessary to sit for the examination and go round the Public Works and Railway Accounts Offices there.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
J S Chakravarti
Comptroller.

Sir

Owing to the amalgamation of the Public Works Audit Office with the Civil which both together now form one and the same establishment it is highly advantageous for the Gazetted Staff of the Office to possess a knowledge of the Public Works and Railway accounts also. As I am at present qualified only in Civil accounts, I beg that facilities may be afforded to me for looking into the P.W.D. and Railway accounts here, and that I may afterwards be deputed to any

Public Works and Railway Audit-Office in British India for some time, and permitted to sit for the Government of India Higher Departmental Examination for Officers of the Superior Accounts Department.

I beg to remain
